

Report on Celebration of Constitution Day

26th November, 2016

The Fundamental Duties are defined as a moral obligation of all citizens to help and to promote a spirit of patriotism and uphold the unity of India on Constitution Day on 26th November, 2016. Mata Sundri College observed Fundamental Duties.

On this occasion NSS Unit of Mata Sundri College organized a lecture on Fundamental Duties which was delivered by Professor Madhuri Sukhija, Department of Political Science.

Dr. Madhuri Sukhija talked about the adoption and implementation of Indian Constitution. She also mention that Fundamental Duties was not a part of original constitution. These were added to Constitution much later by the 42nd amendment of Swarn Singh Committee.

A number of students and teachers participated in this lecture. The lecture was followed by a pledge by students and teachers to observe Fundamental Duties.

We also displayed banner on Fundamental Duties to inspire the students to perform their duties.
